

Les Planètes Phoniques

Teach your children how to pronounce French accurately and make the sound-spelling link!

Suitable for all KS2 French teachers, this technique fits in well with all Schemes of Work, and covers all the most difficult vowel sounds, consonants and graphemes in French.

Course director : Wendy Adeniji

Wendy is a national expert in Modern Language teaching, and is highly in demand as a trainer and author of teaching resources. She writes for Heinemann and BBC Education.

Course content :

- ★ Find out which are the most important sounds to teach in French.
- ★ How to teach the sound-spelling link effectively, using a mixture of games, listening and speaking activities.
- ★ Discuss how this can be effectively integrated into existing Schemes of Work.

you take away :

- ★ A CD-ROM 'Les planètes phoniques', a full resource worth £49 to teach all the important French sounds in a child-friendly way, through discovering a series of planets. It includes native speaker voiceovers, lesson plans and teacher's notes.
- ★ Comprehensive handouts.
- ★ A DVD showing a French native speaker pronouncing the important sounds, so that their facial actions can be imitated.

Book early to avoid disappointment, as these courses fill up quickly.
